

Dr Benji Dhillon MBBS, MRCS, BSc
Cosmetic Surgeon and Founder of Define Clinic

Dr Benji Dhillon is a leading cosmetic surgeon, international speaker and trusted thought leader. As the founder and medical director of Define Clinic, with locations in Buckinghamshire and central London, he is known for his innovative approach to non-invasive aesthetic treatments.

BACKGROUND AND EDUCATION

Dr Dhillon’s medical journey began at the prestigious King’s College London, where he graduated with honours before earning a coveted place in the Royal College of Surgeons in 2009. Early in his career, he trained in some of London’s leading hospitals and practised in Harley Street, where he gained extensive experience in non-surgical aesthetics. This background, combined with his deep understanding of facial anatomy, has positioned him as a leading authority in cosmetic surgery.

DEFINE CLINIC

At Define Clinic, Dr Dhillon offers a unique approach to full-face assessment and treatment, ensuring each patient receives personalised care. He has handpicked and trained his team to uphold the highest standards. Known for his expertise in non-invasive treatments, he delivers subtle yet transformative results, enhancing natural beauty rather than altering it, using the latest techniques and treatments.

INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP AND KEY OPINION LEADER ROLES

As a global thought leader in aesthetics, he frequently presents at international conferences all over the world, including the IMCAS World Congress, The Aesthetic and Anti-Aging Medicine World Congress (AMWC), American Academy of Dermatology Annual Meeting (AAD) and The American Society for Aesthetic Plastic Surgery (ASAPS).

Dr Dhillon is a key opinion leader for several aesthetic brands, including Allergan’s Botox®, Eden Aesthetics JetPeel™, SkinPen and MiraDry, as well as an ambassador for Obagi and CoolSculpting. He also shares his knowledge globally as an expert panelist and international faculty member for Teoxane, where he contributes to shaping the future of aesthetic medicine.

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATIONS

Dr Dhillon has been actively involved in aesthetic clinical research, overseeing multiple Phase 3 and 4 trials during his role as Medical Director for Allergan. His work has been published in various peer-reviewed journals, including Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (PRS) and Journal of Clinical and Aesthetic Dermatology (JCAD).

RECOGNITION AND MEDIA

His expertise has earned him a place in Tatler’s Favourite UK Injectors list, a testament to his skills in aesthetics. Dr Dhillon is a trusted expert in the industry and his insights are regularly featured in publications like Vogue, The Telegraph, The London Standard and Aesthetic Monthly.

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Dr Dhillon is dedicated to training the next generation of aesthetic practitioners. During his time as Allergan’s Medical Director, he played a key role in establishing Allergan’s Medical Institute (AMI), dedicated to promoting excellence in clinical practice. He also created a global education program that has trained thousands of doctors in delivering safer and more effective treatments.

Recognising the need for expert-led education in aesthetics, he founded Master Injector, a leading conference in the USA and Canada that has already trained over 600 delegates. With events lined up in Miami, Toronto, Dallas and Vail in 2025, Dr Dhillon continues to lead the way in setting high standards in aesthetic treatments. Through his CPD-accredited Aesthetics Programme in Beaconsfield, he passes on his expertise to fellow professionals, helping to raise the bar for care and innovation in the industry.

With over a decade of experience and a strong commitment to ongoing research, Dr Dhillon is renowned for his dedication to patient safety and his ability to deliver natural-looking results. His expert techniques, approach and high standards have earned him a reputation as one of the most trusted and sought-after professionals, both among his peers and patients alike.
